Day 1 KUCHING CITY TOUR

Upon arrival, meet at Kuching International Airport. Then proceed for a tour of Kuching City. The brief reminiscence of once upon a time beginning in 1841, Kuching was a fabled place of romance ruled by the White Rajahs for 100 years. It has changed with time and declared a city in 1986. Places of interest include: A panoramic view of Kuching City from top of Civic Centre Tower; visiting the renowned Sarawak Museum; a drive passing by the gigantic Cat Monument; a glimpse of the Kuching South City Hall; then driving through China Town; the business centre – "Golden Triangle of Kuching"; Sarawak's oldest Taoist Temple and award-winning Catholic Church. Take a loop to Satok's area passing through Malay Village; old State Mosque (with 5 golden domes); then proceed to Sarawak Pottery Factory. Back to the city and ending at the spectacular Kuching Waterfront where most of the pre-colonial buildings are situated. Check-in at the hotel. Then proceed for 45 minutes drive to the resort passing by Kuching North City Hall; SUKMA Sports and Village Complex (held in 1998); sprawling Mangrove Swamps and enjoying the scenic view of the legendary Mount Santubong as you drive on.

Check-in and Free at Own Leisure for the rest of the day. You may relax, go swimming or just strolling on the beach by the coastline of South China Sea.
